WORKSHOP LEADERS

Kavisha Mazzella

Kavisha is an ARIA Award winning musician and singer who crosses musical boundaries and creates community experiences in her shows. She makes passionate, life-affirming music which is an energetic fusion of her own original music in which you can also hear echoes of Italian folk traditions tinged with Country, Celtic and Gypsy styles. Kavisha teaches workshops in voice in Italy and Australia and has run choirs such as Melbourne based 'La Voce Della Luna' Italian Women's Choir of which she is the current Musical Director. Kavisha has led many community choirs and has been a guest tutor at the Festival of Voices. In 2008 Kavisha was a recipient of the Victorian Governments Multicultural Awards for Excellence for her contribution to Community Arts. Kavisha was a guest tutor at this years' Festival of Voices.

Bella Ciao! An Introduction to Italian Folk Songs

Uplifting! Tickle your heart and your tonsils in Kavisha's introduction to the rich repertoire of Italian folk songs. Many composers have journeyed to Italy for holidays and have been inspired by the hauntingly beautiful music of the people.

This workshop will be held twice during the festival.

Mark Puddy

Mark Puddy has worked in music education for the past twenty years and is currently dividing his time between Firbank Grammar School, The Australian Girls Choir and writing choral works. He has published over 50 choral pieces and his works are performed in Australia and overseas. Mark writes in a variety of styles for school and community groups. His works are regularly performed by the Australian Girls Choir.

Contemporary Australian Choral Music Composition

This workshop will feature Mark Puddy's own choral arrangements and compositions. Some of Mark's recent commissions include pieces for the opening of the new concert hall at Brisbane's Moreton Bay College and works for the Cambrian Youth Choir and the Western Australian Schools' Choral Festival Association.

Time: Saturday 30 October, 10am - 12noon
Duration: 2 hours
Venue: Devonport Primary School multi-purpose room
Cost: $10 public / $8 DCS members

Running Choral Rehearsals

Non-verbal skills play a very important role in rehearsal and performance. This workshop will cover how to run effective choral rehearsals, including warm ups, approaches to teaching songs and conducting. Suitable for music educators, conductors of school, church and community choirs, and musicians interested in becoming conductors.

Time: Saturday 30 October, 1pm - 3pm
Duration: 2 hours
Venue: Devonport Primary School multi-purpose room
Cost: $10 public / $8 DCS members

Jane Christie-Johnston

Jane Christie-Johnston is the Director of the 'Sing For Your Life!' Choir in Hobart, an a cappella community choir which has grown from about a dozen members in 2006 to more than 120 singers across two rehearsal venues. Jane also sings with a cappella group 'Heart & Soul' and guitar/vocals duo 'Silk'.

Big Gospel Sing

Come and enjoy an energetic and fun workshop featuring some roof-raising a cappella gospel singing. Suitable for beginners and experienced singers, this session is all about having a relaxing sing and creating fantastic harmonies without the pressure of perfecting or performing. No music reading skills required (no sheet music is used).

Time: Saturday 30 October, 1pm - 3pm
Duration: 2 hours
Venue: Uniting Church hall
Cost: $10 public / $8 DCS members

Songs of Peace and Quiet

A chance to slow things down and reflect on the joy of creating simple but delicious harmonies, this a cappella workshop will feature songs with themes of peace, togetherness and reflection. Suitable for beginners and experienced singers, with no music reading skills required.

Time: Sunday 31 October, 11.30am - 1.30pm
Duration: 2 hours
Venue: Uniting Church hall
Cost: $10 public / $8 DCS members

Bruce Innocent

Bruce Innocent has immersed himself in various percussion techniques for many years. He is a regular percussionist for several bands in Northern Tasmania.

Body Percussion

Stomp, click, clap, tap! Even without instruments you can make music. Body percussion is using your body to make music. We use hands, feet, voice and movement. Be in sync and learn some fascinating rhythms in this energizing and fun workshop.

This workshop will be held twice during the festival.

Body Percussion Workshop 1
